

Conference Schedule

Fifth International Workshop on Resources and Tools for Derivational Morphology
University of Fribourg, Switzerland – September 4-5, 2025

Location

University of Fribourg, Avenue de l'Europe 20, CH-1700 Fribourg

Building MIS02, second floor, room 2122

Google Maps: click here

Thursday, September 4

8:45 Registration

9:15 Opening welcome

9:30 Invited talk: Magda Ševčíková (Charles University)
Non-native roots in derivational morphology – any specifics?

10:30 Coffee break

11:00 Jurgis Pakerys (Vilnius University), Virginijus Dadurkevičius (Vytautas Magnus University) & Agnė Navickaitė-Klišauskienė (Vilnius University)
Additional lemmatization and measures of derivational productivity: The case of Lithuanian denominal suffixal nouns

Vojtěch John (Charles University) & Zdeněk Žabokrtský (Charles University)
Multilingual base word recognition in derivation

Lucie Barque (Laboratoire de linguistique formelle, Université Paris 7)
LexEco: Exploring how derivational morphology contributes to the semantics of French nouns

12:30 Lunch at the University cafeteria (Mensa Miséricorde )

14:00 Fiammetta Namer (UMR 7118 ATILF, Université de Lorraine), Stéphanie Lignon (UMR 7118 ATILF & Nancy Université) & Nabil Hathout (CNRS)
Morphophonological alternation patterns in the Phononette derivational database: The role of families and series

Hana Hledíková (Charles University)

A data-based analysis of the effect of prefixation on the syntactic-semantic characteristics of verbs in Czech

Ivan Lacić (University of Bologna)

InTens – a dataset of Italian intensified derivatives. Description and application in a productivity study

15:30 Coffee break

16:00 Matteo Pellegrini, Eleonora Litta & Federica Iurescia (Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore)

Paying the inheritance tax: Novel and preserved overabundance in Latin prefixed verbs

Michal Olbrich & Zdeněk Žabokrtský (Charles University)

Improving the quality of morphological segmentation with self training methods

19:00 Social dinner (Restaurant de la Clef )

Friday, September 5

9:00 Invited talk: Sabine Arndt-Lappe (Universität Trier)

Explaining analogy in word-formation: The role of lexical network structure

10:00 Abishek Stephen & Vojtěch John (Charles University)

Derivational morphemes as markers of borrowed words in Czech

10:30 Coffee break

11:00 Martin Schäfer (Universität Leipzig)

Offset vectors and affix meaning in English nominalizations

Silvia Zampetta (University of Pavia)

Assessing morphological productivity in a corpus language: A diachronic study of Ancient Greek deverbal nominal suffixes

Krešimir Šojat (Sveučilište u Zagrebu)

CroComp - Lexicon of Croatian compounds

12:30 Closing remarks

12:40 Lunch at the University cafeteria (Mensa Misericorde )

14:15 Old town tour (approximately 2 hours) → Meeting point: Place Georges-Python )

Contact

Richard Huyghe

richard.huyghe@unifr.ch

Megan Prudent

megan.prudent@unifr.ch

Justine Salvadori

justine.salvadori@unifr.ch 